Change is one of the irresistible laws of nature, and fortunately the change is almost invariably for the better. As an instance of this, St. Patrick's Pills are fast taking the place of the old harsh and violent cathartics, because they are milder and produce a pleasanter effect, besides they are much more beneficial in removing morbid matter from the system and prevent ague and other malarious diseases. As a cathartic and liver pill they are almost perfect. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

ALL SORTS.

Weather indications; rain, nearly stationary temperature.

"Little Puck" promises to be a very attractive theatrical event.

The net in the Cronin case is being drawn more tightly every day.

New weather flags have been sent for, and will soon be displayed from the Capitol flag pole.

The case of Lyon County vs. The State of Nevada will come before Judge Rising on Thursday.

Thomas Fitch says he will not be a candidate for Congress if Bartine, the present incumbent is before the convention.

The APPEAL still has numerous communications regarding esperanto but inquires not accompanied by postage stamps are thrown into the waste basket.

The Episcopal diocese of California is having a row with Bishop Wingfield and has it been carried into the General Convention now in session in New York.

Chicago is reaching out with a will and a big sack for the next World's Exposition. A strong will and a big sack ought to accomplish a good deal.

A man has wagered $500 that he can beat his way from New York to San Francisco. We'll take the bet provided he attempts to cross the Oakland Ferry free.

The APPEAL commends Senator Fair's good sense in not allowing his daughter to go into a convent. There are many better vocations for women than being buried from the world at the age of seventeen.

Editor Lovejoy of the Wabaska Mangler, has been in town a few days looking around to see if he cannot swipe some old Globe job press and an extra kettle of old roller composition. We always hire an extra policeman to watch our lye pot when he's about.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist

Cough! and Cough! and Cough!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Mr. E. P. Lovejoy, a large dealer in general merchandise, and editor of the Wabaska Mangler, at Wabaska, Nevada says: "I have tried St. Patrick's Pills and can truthfully say they are the best I have ever taken or known used." As a pleasant physic or for disorders of the liver they will always give perfect satisfaction. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

THE RAY FOSTER CASE.

THE CHRONICLE STILL DUPED BY HER TRICKS.

Story of the Woman's Two Attempts at Suicide.

The San Francisco Chronicle continues to make a sensation of the Ray Foster case, and its reporters still hang to the theory that the woman has been made the victim of a foul plot. It also states that George Givevich of this city has twice attempted her life.

THE FIRST SHOOTING.

Two or three years ago she attempted suicide at a fast house in this city, or what is more probable, she pretended to make the attempt. She fired a shot and the flash of the pistol set her dress on fire.

Parties who heard the report rushed in and extinguished the flames. Beyond this she received no bodily injuries.

It was the general impression that she had no intention of killing herself at that time, but only wished to make a sensation and frighten some one.

THE LAST SHOOTING.

Last November she shot herself in a card room of Bryson & Givevich's saloon. George Givevich did not fire the shot, and was not in the same room when the shot was fired. He was behind the bar at the time, and at least six men are ready to swear to that fact.

Mention has been made in the Chronicle that District Attorney Torreyson and Mayor Bryson were cognizant of the fact that Givevich shot the woman. They are cognizant of the fact that she shot herself, and are thoroughly familiar with all the surroundings of the affair. So is the Sheriff and numbers of other perfectly responsible persons.

That the woman has been very unfortunate no one will deny, and she has had many sympathizers in the city, but there is nothing in the case which warrants the making a case of attempted suicide one of attempted murder, or implicating officials of this county as accessories to a covering up of facts.

A SUGGESTION.

In view of the notoriety that has been given the matter in the San Francisco papers, the APPEAL suggests that the whole matter be brought before the Grand Jury and the facts fully inquired into. Mr. Givevich is perfectly willing that this should be done, and if the matter is not thoroughly sifted by the Grand Jury it places several parties in this city in a false position with those who are not acquainted with the facts.

NO ABDUCTION.

The Chronicle will find before it gets through, that Miss Foster has not been abducted, but has simply arranged for a newspaper sensation and carried out her part of the programme in excellent shape. She is having a good laugh over the newspaper notoriety she is getting and will turn up all right in due season.

In the case of J. G. Ford & Co. vs. Charles McGregor, Assessor of Nye county, District Judge T. H. Wells has decided in favor of defendants. This means that horses cattle and sheep that are grazing in Nye county are assessable in Nye County, whether the owners of the stock claim their residence in Nye or not.—Belmont Courier.

Senator Fair gravely tells the reporters where he worships. Senator Fair is a very devout Churchgoer. When he drops into his pew, he looks about him and begins to calculate what he can get the property for, and if a new brewery put up on the site of the church would pay 18 per cent. per annum.

It is strange how careful the newspapers are in commenting on the Cronin case. They seem to be afraid of handling it for fear they may offend the Irish vote of next Fall. An editor who endorses murder and assassination for fear of the Irish or any other vote is not fit to edit an American newspaper.

M. Cohn has just received a large consignment of goods from the East.

POLITICAL INFORMATION.

People who are constantly asking the writer what sort of a job is being put up in politics next Fall are respectfully informed that it is folly to seek for light in this direction.

When any jobs are being put up in politics the editor of the APPEAL is not called in to assist. There are enough jobbers of high and low degree to fix up the slate without asking in too many outsiders. If anything is going on it is being kept devilish quiet.

The writer thinks that George Cassidy is fixing up a combination, and if you want to know just what it is, come up to the APPEAL office, fish up the Eureka Sentinel from the exchange pile and see what you can get out of it. Drop a line to "Black Wallace" or "Cleve," and if you get any information we want to be counted in for half of it.

For crops of rumors Reno is a good place. You can get more political rumors from Reno than anywhere in the State, and less facts.

Storey county is a fine field for the ducks who deal in political prophecies. Every other man there is a political prophet.

Down here in Ormsby you find the men who are all the confidential right hand men of "the powers." Who the duce the powers are is hard to find out; by running and letting them jump on you a few heats you get a very good idea.

If you want to pick up real valuable information, go and stop a day with Jim Haines of Genoa. His conversation on politics is very "filling." Many a man comes away from Haines' full to the brim of hard cider and general misinformation.

Why They Don't Speak.

A few days ago, a woman whose daughter had been gossiped about rushed into a neighbor's house and exclaimed:

"How dare people talk of my daughter! I shan't allow it."

"Well, Mrs. ———, you have been talking about other people's daughters all your life in Carson, now I guess you know how it seems to have your daughters talked about," was the reply.

An account of this little remark, they don't speak any more as they pass by.

A Foreboding Ripple.

There appears to be a little ripple in gambling circles. Some of the knights of the green cloth are accusing others of the same profession of not paying due respect to the twelve o'clock law. The law is very exacting on peace officers, and it is possible some of the transgressors, if there be such, will be invited to appear before Judge Young to settle an account in favor of the State.—Gazette.

More Rain.

Yesterday, Nevada received another good drenching, just to assure the inhabitants of the State that moisture had not entirely deserted this section.

The farmers and mill men are in very good humor over the down pour which has extended all over California thus falling on the unjust as well as ourselves.

Lander's Grand Jury has ignored the charges against L. A. Scott and H. M. Viscoll for illegal voting, and against Joseph Moss and A. Graham for perjury.

Illegal voters are continually slipping through the courts on technicalities or lack of evidence, which is much to be regretted as they are a class of offenders who ought to be rounded up where they belong.

An Editor's Opinion.

The editor of the San Luis Obispo Mirror is evidently not a lover of poetry. He says:

"The San Francisco Bulletin and the Call believe in fostering home industry, especially in the poetry line. Every Sunday several columns of song by amateurs appear in each of the papers. Some of the stuff is bad, but most of it is ——— bad."

GEO. HARK.

Beef, Lamb, Mutton, Veal, Sausage, Etc

My facilities for purchasing good beef are second to none in the State, and as more can always be assured of the best in the market. This market was the first in the city to introduce the cold storage process, by which meats can be kept for weeks in the hottest weather. Our cold storage room is the largest and most perfect in the State. 1044
